

A TRUST SMASHER.

David Machamer Did More in One Day Than Griggs Did All Summer.

THE PRICE OF THRESHING

Was Put Up to a High Notch by Threshers of Three Counties.

FARMERS WOULD NOT PAY

be Additional High Price and One of Their Number Bought a Machine and Has More Work Than He Can Do at the Old Figures.

David Machamer, of Lake township, is the king bee trust smasher of this section of this county at least. Mr. Machamer has, it is related, just succeeded in giving a trust a solar plexus blow that has caused all sorts of trouble for the promoters and incidentally turned a tide of business toward the trust destroyer. The story goes that the threshers of Stark, Portage and Summit counties formed a combine and raised the price of threshing. It is said the combine raised the price just double what it had been. The farmers naturally arose in arms against the raise and a meeting was held in the neighborhood of Cairo to protest against the action of the thresher trust and discuss some method of defeating it. Among the farmers opposed to the new combine was David Machamer, a wealthy resident of Lake township, who owns broad acres and a good supply of first class Deming threshers. Mr. Machamer said he would wreck the trust and he did it. The story goes that Mr. Machamer sent his son to get prices on a complete threshing outfit. The fact that he was figuring on a threshing outfit came to the ears of members of the trust who, it is said, notified a threshing machine concern, of the trust, its purposes, and of the purpose of Mr. Machamer and his friends to break up the combine. This was supposed to have weight with the concern to prevent the purchase of the machinery outside the trust but it didn't work. Mr. Machamer journeyed to the place where the concern is located, it is said. At first the concern was reluctant to oppose the combine but Mr. Machamer was known to be "good as gold" and the machinery was sold to him. The Lake township farmer proceeded home with a brand new thresher, engine and all the appurtenances of an up-to-date threshing outfit. The borders of the township were scarcely reached when the sturdy yeomen of a half dozen townships were on hand to secure Mr. Machamer and his thresher to do their work. Mr. Machamer cut the price down to the original figure and the trust took a tumble. The officers of the combine met and also came down with their price. Machamer's outfit has been doing all the work it is capable of, but some of the farmers were forced to hire trust machines. However, the entire farming community in Northern Stark and Southern Summit and Portage counties have already engaged the anti-trust machines for next year.

A BRILLIANT NUPTIAL EVENT.

Mr. Constance Lacave and Miss Martha Ziegemeier

ARE JOINED IN WEDLOCK.

Ceremony Performed at St. Peter's Church Wednesday Morning Before a Large Company of Friends.

Mr. Constance Lacave and Miss Martha Ziegemeier were united in the bonds of wedlock Wednesday morning at St. Peter's Catholic church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ziegemeier, of 1043 North Walnut street while the groom is employed at the Morgan Engineering works, at Alliance, and is quite prominent in society circles in that city.

Promptly at 9 o'clock the bridal party entered the church and advanced to the altar to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Prof. Emil Schilling, and the bride was given away by her father. Miss Ella Ziegemeier, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and Miss Lizzie Meyers, of Pittsburg, the bridesmaid. Otto Lacave, brother of the groom, and G. P. McGrath, of this city, supported the groom as best men. Two little flower girls marched at the head of the party, and also the ushers, Albert Danemiller and Edward Lothamer of this city. Rev. Father Kirk, of Cleveland, and Father Treiber assisted Father Arnold in the performance of the ceremony. "O Promise Me" was sung by Mr. Ernest Hilgendorf as the bride and groom took their places at the altar and a select chorus composed of home and foreign talent rendered "Kyrle" and "Gloria." Following this Mrs. Anna Biechele Whelan, of Cleveland, sang a solo and this was followed by a duet with her sister Mrs. Ida Biechele-Balm, of Chicago. "Ecce Panis Angelorum" was delightfully rendered.

Nuptial high mass was then conducted by Rev. Father Arnold as celebrant assisted by Rev. Father Treiber as deacon and father Kirk as sub-deacon, and the chorus sang "Mass in B Flat" and special selections. The exercises were most elaborate and impressive and the wedding was brilliant in its solemn splendor. Upon the completion of the services the party entered a carriage and were driven to the home of the parents of the bride, on Walnut Hill where a wedding breakfast was served to the guests. A reception will be held Wednesday evening and the party will start Thursday afternoon on a honeymoon trip to the Great Lakes. After their return they will be at home to their numerous friends, at Alliance.

WEARSTLER CHURCH

Being Torn Down and Remodeled So That It Will Be Practically New.

The Wearstler church, situated about three miles north of Canton, on the Middlebranch road, is being torn down and remodeled. All of the building will not be torn down, but the congregation seems to have taken a lesson from the construction of the Stark county court house and are going to do a job of remodeling that will make a new structure. The congregation is large and wealthy and will put up a fine edifice.

PERSONAL CONFLICTS

Came Near Resulting Over the Arrest of Boys at Marlboro.

Only two of the five small boys who were charged with breaking into M. Miller's cannery factory at Marlboro, says the Alliance Leader, were placed under arrest as it was shown before Justice Frank that the other three did not enter the building. They were dismissed with a severe lecture. Howard Werner and Roy France, however, were placed under arrest and leased on peace bond to appear before Justice Frank for trial on Friday. The village was greatly excited over the affair and several personal conflicts between relatives of the boys and citizens urging their prosecution were narrowly averted.

AN OLD AFFAIR IS RECALLED.

A Prize Fight That for a Time Interested Cantonians.

WILL HAVE ANOTHER AIRING

Massillon Attorney Sues For Fees For Defending the Timekeeper After He Had Been Indicted.

Cantonians will recall the Burns-Aston prize fight that occurred at Sherodsville a few years ago. All the spectators and principals were arrested and some Canton young men had to go to Carrollton to square themselves after the session of the grand jury in that county. The affair, after causing much trouble for many Cantonians and Massillonians, and after going through all the courts, including the supreme, is now to be given another stirring up in Massillon. Attorney George B. Eggert has begun suit in Justice Sibley's court, praying for a judgment of $25 against Kimball Gering, whom he claims, he served while he was under arrest for having been timekeeper at the fight. Mr. Eggert's attorney is Edwin Howald. J. O. Garrett is for the defense.

SPACIOUS STREETS

To Be Used For Exhibits at the Biggest Street Fair Of All.

THE CANAL FULTON PEOPLE

Have Arranged For the Greatest Exhibition Ever Given in the County.

MANY PREMIUMS OFFERED

And Everything Will Be Absolutely Free—Will Partake of the Nature of a Free Fair and Exhibition—Classes For Products of All Kinds.

The people of Canal Fulton have decided to have a street fair and with the people of that thriving, hospitable village decision is synonymous with success. Canal Fulton people never do things just as other towns do, usually manage to do them just a little better. In the matter of a street fair all former efforts in this line are to be eclipsed and the street fair that will be held within the limits of the corporation, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, September 20, 21 and 22, will be a colossal affair. It will not only be an exhibition of the wares that merchants offer for sale from their shelves and show windows, but will embrace the products of the factory, the farm, the dairy, the nursery and all departments of human industry and thrift.

For several weeks the citizens of that village have been busily engaged in making preparations for the fair and they have succeeded in arranging a program that is at once exhaustive and attractive. In the first place it was necessary to choose a set of energetic and able men to take the lead in matters pertaining to the fair and the mayor of the town, A. H. McCadden, was chosen to head the enterprise and was elected president. W. E. Moulton was chosen secretary, J. W. Biller treasurer, William Stover general superintendent and George Becher chief of police. The following executive board has been appointed: Orrin McDowell, F. A. Fisher, Dr. A. B. Campbell, C. R. Dally, A. P. Keller, S. G. Ott, Lafayette Swigart, C. A. Vanderhoof, J. R. Lawrence, R. F. Myers, John H. Focht, and George Becher. But the officers of the association of citizens who are giving the fair are only representative. The fair belongs to Canal Fulton and her people and unless all signs fail it will be something that the town may be proud of for years to come. Everybody has a shoulder to the wheel and the enterprise will move at an astonishing rate.

The management has arranged so that the fair will occupy the streets of the town, best adapted to the purpose, and the pretty little village is rich in opportunity for a first class location. The streets chosen will be set apart exclusively for the fair and its numerous exhibits. Besides the exhibits it has been arranged that there be a horse race each day and there will be a horse race each day. A great stock parade will be given and it is promised that the stock exhibition will be one of the largest ever seen in the county. Farmers and stock raisers are taking a great interest in the fair and already a large list of the finest products of Stark county grazing lands is entered. There will be two classes at the fair, articles entered for exhibition only, and articles entered for premium. And the premiums will be liberal too. The fair is free—absolutely free—but the premium list is extensive and the amounts offered are worth going after. Six bands will be in attendance during the fair to enliven the three days with music and there will be a balloon ascension each day.

From the first day of the program it can be seen that the fair will be conducted on a plan to please the tastes of all comers. There will be a horse race, running half mile, best two out of three. Then will come a foot race for boys. In the afternoon is the stock parade and a balloon ascension. Canal Fulton's base ball team will, in the meantime, tackle the Orrville team. A rope walk and trapeze performance and a good play in the opera house will conclude the day's program.

The program that has been prepared by the management is quite elaborate, but it fails to set forth the attractions just as they will appear. It mentions classes, but the bare program could not go into the features in those classes. The fun will begin again early on the second day. A trotting race will open the program at 10 o'clock Thursday, for horses without records, best two in three, and there is a fine course to go over. Then comes a tub race on the canal. In the afternoon the big stock parade again takes place and the balloon ascension follows it. Then there will be a ball game between the crack Canal Fulton team and the fast New Berlin nine. Rope walking and trapeze performances will be special attractions for the evening, announced to take place at 7 o'clock.

On Friday the day will open with a Snolligoster parade. A great many people do not know what a Snolligoster parade is, but they are to visit the fair to learn and when they get there and witness this great parade they will know what a Snolligoster parade consists of, and that will be worth the effort to get there. There is no change for admission and the fair is a free institution. All the people of Canal Fulton ask is that the people attend. They will do the rest. A pacing race is on the third day's program, and suitable purses are offered. The race is for horses without a record. A band composed of one of the six big bands engaged for the fair will be held at 1:30 Friday, and then there will be another ball game, this time between Canal Fulton

MEN AND WOMEN

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased. For pleasing results use Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy. At druggists. Sample bottle by mail, free, also pamphlet. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y.

and Medina teams. At 2:30 o'clock, on one of the principal streets, of the fair, will be held a consignment sale of stock and other exhibits, free of charge. In the evening the fair will close in a blaze of glory with a pyrotechnic display.

The sports while they will attract many, will be only incidental to the big attraction, the exhibits, both free and for a premium. The sports will serve as diversions from the labyrinth of products of all sorts that will be on exhibition. In the premium department the liberal sum of $1,500 is offered in purses. Class A includes draft and general purpose horses and roadsters, trotters and pacers. Class B includes exhibits of cattle and in this department it is promised that the largest county fairs in the state will be equaled. Short horns, Holsteins and Jerseys are catalogued for good premiums. The books show that there will be a large exhibit of sheep and swine, and the poultry show alone will be worth a visit to the fair. All the best raisers of poultry will have exhibitions at the fair. Cereals, vegetables and fruits will be exhibited and liberal premiums are offered in these departments. The domestic display will be attractive to the women of Stark county. The best bakers and jelly makers will have samples of their domestic skill on exhibition and will compete for the prizes. Flowers will have a space in the exhibit streets and needle work and embroidery will also be seen, suitable premiums being offered.

The miscellaneous department is filled already and nearly a whole row of exhibit booths will be taken up with the curios that will be presented. Collections of coins, pre-historic relics and wood carving will be features. It is said that some of the finest pieces of wood carving will be on exhibition that have ever been shown in Ohio. There are numerous other classes arranged with premiums and the fair will be a big undertaking. Canal Fulton people are arranging to greet their friends from Canton, Massillon, Alliance and Stark county in general. Cantonians will have no trouble in reaching the fair. Leaving Canton on an Interurban car at 8:06 a. m. will insure arrival at Canal Fulton by 9:45 on the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling railroad. Trains leave Canal Fulton during the afternoon and one leaves there at 7:30 that will connect at Massillon with Interurban cars.

AMPLE REWARD FOR A RING.

Good Fortune Came to a Young Lady of This City.

DETECTIVE FROM CLEVELAND

Came to Canton and Took Possession of the Valuable Diamond and Left a Sum of Money.

A very fortunate occurrence to a young lady from this city came to light Wednesday night when Detective L. C. Ohliger, of Cleveland, visited this city. One week ago an advertisement appeared in a local paper stating that a young lady from Cleveland had lost a valuable ring in the dining room at the hotel at Silver lake pleasure resort, and the loser of the ring offered a reward of $25 to the party who picked it up, without any questions being asked. The name of the owner of the ring was not mentioned but an address was given to which the writer should send whatever information could be secured regarding the lost article.

At the time the ring was lost a young Canton lady visited at Silver lake and was in the dining room. She espied the ring lying upon the floor and picked it up. Efforts were made at that time to find the owner but without success, and when she returned home to this city she brought the ring home. Upon reading the advertisement in the paper she at once corresponded with the party and stated the circumstances of finding the ring. She received a reply that the person would meet her at the Hurford house in this city Wednesday night, who owned the ring, and that the young lady should call there, and if it was the one which was lost she would receive the reward. About 7 o'clock the young lady in question walked into the parlors of the Hurford house. She inquired for a certain gentleman named in the letter. It appears that Detective L. C. Ohliger, of Cleveland, had been dispatched here to receive the ring, and she was sent to him. The ring proved the one lost at Silver lake, and without questioning the young lady was paid $25 and she departed. The detective stated to a relative in this city that the ring had been the young Cleveland lady by a rich uncle from Paris, and that it was valued at $1,500.

THE FINDER.

Detective Ohliger stated Thursday morning that the young lady who found the ring is Miss Elmina Kemery, of 1707 Bank street. The young lady who lost the ring is the daughter of a prominent Cleveland railroad official. She employed the detective as soon as she discovered her loss, telling him she lost it in the toilet room at the hotel. Ohliger went to Ravenna and there he learned from a young lady that a Canton young lady had found it.

ERRATIC WIFE GOT INTO JAIL.

Her New Husband Was Obligated to Pay Her Fine.

MATRIMONIAL ADVERTISEMENT

And What Happened to the Fair That Were United Through Its Agency—A Massillon Man's Experience.

News-Democrat readers will remember the case of John W. Ridenbaugh, of Massillon, who advertised for a wife who could cook, was not old and was good and fair. He got one in the person of Charlotte Hodges, who is said to have stated that she owned property on the lake front in Cleveland. The Wachter and Anzeiger, a Cleveland publication, has the following about the pair:

"Before Judge Fiedler yesterday appeared John W. Ridenbaugh, of Massillon, O., who showed him his marriage certificate and requested him to release his wife, with whom he was on his wedding tour, saying that she had been arrested, having become drunk while left alone by him for a few hours. It was learned that the innocent Ridenbaugh, who is 54 years old, met Charlotte Hodges at his home and married her. Charlotte left Cleveland some time ago because she became too well known in all the saloons and besides had the misfortune to be found drunk lying alongside of the corpse of her dead first husband. The judge fined the young wife, who did not seem to feel any remorse, $1 and costs, which the husband sorrowfully paid."

ACTION FOR DAMAGES

Brought By a Man Who Declares He Was Injured By Being Assaulted.

Herbert N. Wingerter has begun proceedings in common pleas court against Daniel Griffith to collect $2,000 damages which he alleges he sustained by reason of an assault committed upon him by the defendant on August 19, 1899. Attorney Stands, Sterling and Braucher filed the petition.

ILLNESS EXPLAINED.

Coroner Schuffell Called to Take Testimony in a Peculiar Case.

A case was called to the attention of Coroner Schuffell on Thursday morning, which may possibly result in the arrest of a colored woman. Wednesday morning Lizzie Boyd, a colored woman and the mother of several children called at the residence of Mrs. Coppes at the corner of Fifth and Shorb streets, to do the week's washing. Shortly before dinner she suddenly became ill and she retired for a short time to the outbuilding. When she came out again she was about to resume her work, but was too weak to do so, and Mrs. Coppes called a carriage and had her removed to her home on Pine street. Wednesday night Mrs. Coppes called on the Boyd woman to learn her condition, when the sick woman related the cause of her sudden illness. When Mrs. Coppes arrived home she made an investigation in the outbuilding which culminated in calling Coroner Schuffell to the scene. A well developed child was found dead in the vault. A local undertaker was called to take charge of the body. The coroner is investigating and he stated Thursday afternoon that although the woman could not be adjudged guilty of a crime it was possible that the health authorities would prosecute her for violating certain laws regarding the throwing of the body where it was found.

EARLY MORNING NUPTIAL EVENT.

Mr. Edward Ziegemeier and Miss Florence Moushey United.

RECEPTION AFTER CEREMONY.

Residence of the Bride's Parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Moushey, the Scene of Reception—Tour of the Lakes.

St. John's Catholic church was crowded with people Thursday morning to witness the marriage of Miss Florence Moushey to Mr. Edward Ziegemeier. Promptly at 8:30 o'clock the bridal party entered the church, escorted by Mr. E. J. McCormick and Mr. Harry Weiss as ushers. Miss Ella Ziegemeier, Miss Gertrude Moushey and Miss Anna Reed attended the bride as bridesmaids and the groomsmen were Mr. Charles F. Bonnot, Mr. Chester Swift and Mr. Albert Danemiller.

As the party entered the church, Lohegrin's wedding march was played by Miss Anna Bolus in her usual brilliant manner and as the bride and groom took their places before the altar, a quartet composed of Miss Sarah Lavin, soprano, Miss Florence Biechele, contralto, Mr. Charles Lang, tenor, and Mr. Charles Leichot, baritone, beautifully rendered the Leprevost Mass. The bride was attended to the altar by her father, Louis F. Moushey, and High Mass was conducted by Rev. Father McGuire. Miss Sarah Lavin sang, "The Lord is my Light," by Alilizen, in a manner that surprised even her most sanguine friends, and Mr. Charles Lang, whose reputation as a tenor soloist needs no recommendation, rendered Luzzi's "Ave Maria."

After the wedding service the bridal party departed from the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march and were driven to the home of the bride's parents, 825 North Cleveland avenue. There a wedding dinner was served from 10 to 12 o'clock, and the bride and groom received the congratulations of their many friends. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers and plants and was crowded by the numerous guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Ziegemeier will leave today for a tour of the great lakes and upon their return next week will be at home to their friends at 403 Park avenue.

COURT NOTES.

The trustees of the German Reformed church of this city, have filed a petition in common pleas court praying for permission to sell a strip of land six feet wide and extending from Tuscarawas street to East Fifth street along the east side of the church property. The petition alleges that it is necessary for the convenience of the members of the congregation that a sidewalk be built along the east side of the church premises and the petitioners ask that they be granted leave to sell the strip named to the city of Canton to be used for sidewalk purposes.

SUIT ON A NOTE.

Okella Buttermore has begun proceedings in common pleas court against W. J. Heppert and D. P. Clapper to collect $140 alleged due on promissory note. Eggert and McLaughlin filed the petition.
